

PRESS RELEASE

Join the Conversation in Hamburg: UITP Summit 2025 Programme is launched

Brussels, 17 March 2025

The UITP Summit is heading to Hamburg...And the Congress Programme is now live!

This June, from 15-18 June 2025, the German city will become the very epicentre of global mobility discussions for the most important diary entry for all urban mobility professionals.

And the international media are invited to join the conversation with a specialised agenda created just for you.

With press conferences, exclusive interviews, product launches and networking and social gatherings, the UITP Summit is the event to provide you with content and access to the leading names in urban movement.

Register to join in a few simple steps

**No need to enter a discount code to gain free attendance, this link is exclusive for the media*

For the media already registered, it's time to consider your content with our full Programme ready for your consideration.

Our 2025 Summit will take place under six key tracks:

Net Zero Cities, Operations, Lifestyle, People-Centricity, Sustainability and Technology.

And when expanded they will focus on Driving policies to net zero, Operating according to local needs, Sustainable mobility as a lifestyle, Focus on people and communities, Aligning mobility planning with the SDGs, and Technologies for change.

These tracks define our agenda, and the most pressing sector topics will be brought to the table for exchange with our delegates.

The media have major access, and many networking opportunities, including innovative tours, exclusive interviews, and social evenings, to create connections with operators, authorities, and industry suppliers worldwide.
